NO PARTY CONVENTIONS

Bill introduced in Kentucky House to make Primaries Constituent the Sole Means of Nominating.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 7.—The senate session opened at 10:30 o'clock Thursday, and the agreement of the night before between the conservatives and the radicals regarding the selection of a special committee on elections was carried out. The democrats selected six partisan members on the committee and the republicans selected two brown democrats, one populist and two republicans.

A resolution providing for joint sessions of the senate and house committees was adopted. The resolution for the adjournment on September 22 was entered. Representative George Travers, of Campbell county, introduced a bill in the house of representatives which, if adopted, will do away with party conventions in Kentucky. It provides that on the first Tuesday in August each year primary elections be held to nominate candidates for the office to be filled at the November election. All parties casting 25 per cent. of the vote must hold primaries.

FIRE AT A STOCK FARM.

Sir Walter, G. W. Johnson, Magian and Ornament, Valuable Stallions, Recently Escaped Death.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 7.—Four of the stallions at La Belle stock farm, near this city, had a narrow escape from death by fire at an early hour Thursday morning. They were Sir Walter and G. W. Johnson, owned by H. K. Knapp, of New York; Magian, property of Perry Belmont, of New York; and Ornament, owned by H. P. People, the owner of the farm. The stallions were in the barn when the fire broke out, and it was only by the quick action of the firemen that they were saved. The fire was caused by a spark from a stove.

Miners Called Out. Middleboro, Ky., Sept. 7.—Notices have been posted at the mine in this district by the United Mine Workers' union, ordering the miners out until September 10, the date set at the Coal Creek conference, when the operators and miners will meet again to consider a contract for the coming year. The miners here have been working this week, but all union miners stopped Thursday, pending the settlement. The Phenix Coal Co. signed the agreement, and its mines will not shut down.

Trials Postponed. Richmond, Ky., Sept. 7.—The trial of Dock Lowry, who is charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Milburn, wife of a prominent citizen of Vinton, has been continued in the circuit court until December. Lowry has been in the Lexington (Ky.) jail for six months for safe keeping, but he will not be taken back, as the strong feeling against the prisoner has died out.

Editor Married. Columbia, Ky., Sept. 7.—Thomas P. Scott, editor of the Burkville Herald, was married in this city Thursday evening to Mrs. W. H. White, a popular young woman of Adair county. Mr. Scott is a prominent republican and was mentioned in connection with the lieutenant governorship race last fall.

Verkes at Hopkinsville. Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 7.—The Christian county republicans opened their campaign in this city Thursday afternoon with speaking at the Union Tabernacle by Hon. John H. Verkes. The Madisonville band furnished music, and the streets all morning, playing patriotic airs.

Indicted for Murder. Lexington, Ky., Sept. 7.—The grand jury Thursday returned an indictment for murder against John H. Ludwig, charged with killing Martin Stevens, a fellow workman, at the Armour building, about two months ago.

Secured More Room. Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7.—The populists, in addition to their national headquarters, have opened additional state headquarters at 340 West Jefferson street. They will hold a convention there Friday to nominate a candidate for congress in this district.

County Acquitted. Lexington, Ky., Sept. 7.—Jailer Morgan Centry, indicted for malfeasance in office on the allegation that he had failed to keep the jail clean, was acquitted of the charge in the circuit court Thursday.

Convicted of Forgery. Richmond, Ky., Sept. 7.—Luther Creekmore, a well-known young man of this city, was tried in the circuit court on a charge of forgery and given two years in the state prison at Frankfort.

Tens Out of One. Corbin, Ky., Sept. 7.—Henry Raper, who formerly resided in the southern part of this county, was arrested at his home in Campbell county, Tennessee, charged with raising $1 bills to tens. He acknowledged his guilt.

New Kentucky Post Offices. Washington, Sept. 7.—The following post offices have been established in Kentucky: Butts, Clark county, with Millard F. Hinson, postmaster; Roof, Pike county, with T. J. Roop.

John Robinson's Shows will be at Ashland September 19th.

A good many consumptives would be cured and the worst cases comforted and cured by a new money and Tar. Suggest it to those afflicted. You should do this at once. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

Mrs. Wallace Montague of Paris is teaching school at Shannon.

Corn-buskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire and sprains, or cuts from any other cause, are quickly healed when Robinson's Show Ointment is promptly applied. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The American Turf Congress will hold its annual meeting in Louisville September 19th.

Thousands suffer with torpid liver, producing great depression of spirits, indigestion, constipation, headache, etc. Herbine will stimulate the liver, keep the bowels regular and restore a healthy buoyancy of spirits. Price, 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. Thomas A. Prather is doing the brick work on the residence of John W. Hefflin at Flemingsburg.

White's Cream Vermifuge is essentially the child's tonic. It improves the digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens the nervous system and restores to health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. Price, 25 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

L. and N. earnings for the fiscal year, beginning July 1st, show a decrease from last year of over $20,000.
